Keynote Session

Master Plan for Healthy Aging

Heather Young, PhD, RN, FAAN

Dr. Heather Young is a nurse leader, educator, scientist, and nationally recognized expert in gerontological nursing and rural health care, as well as a professor and dean emerita for the Betty Irene Moore School of Nursing at UC Davis. Dr. Young researches healthy aging with a particular focus on the interface between individuals, family, and formal healthcare systems. She co-leads the Healthy Aging in a Digital World initiative at UC Davis Health and is associate director for strategic partnerships and faculty with the School of Nursing's Family Caregiving Institute. As founding dean and associate vice chancellor for nursing for UC Davis Health, Dr. Young led the establishment of the School of Nursing, the development of five new graduate programs in nursing science and health-care leadership, the design and construction of the 70,000-square-foot Betty Irene Moore Hall, and the formation of a nursing science research program focused on healthy systems and healthy people. She served as a commissioner on the California Future Healthcare Workforce Commission.

Highlighted Session

Medicare Risk Adjustment: Enabling Longitudinal Interdisciplinary Team Care for the Frail Elderly

Jeffrey Kang, MD, MPH

Dr. Jeffrey Kang has over 35 years of progressive healthcare experience in primary care, commercial health insurance, retail healthcare, and government. Dr. Kang is a geriatrician and has led successful, full-risk primary care practices for Pacificare/Secure Horizon, EverCare, PACE and, most recently, ChenMed, providing concierge-level, primary care to low-to-moderate-income Medicare Advantage beneficiaries. He previously served as chief medical officer for Cigna and senior vice president for Walgreens. He also served as the very first chief clinical officer for the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Service (CMS). Dr. Kang is currently the founding CEO of WellBe Senior Medical, an innovative healthcare platform providing concierge, team-based geriatric care to the frail, polychronic elderly Medicare Advantage beneficiary on a global capitated basis. In addition, he serves on the board of directors of the National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA), ChenMed, and Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Minnesota.

Special Note to Onsite Attendees: Adaptability is a hallmark of nurses, and we know it is the key to our shared success during these times. We look forward to including you as we navigate the changes brought about by COVID-19 and incorporate what's best about connecting with colleagues and nursing leaders at our conference with what's best about distancing for individual health based on current CDC guidelines.

Pre-Conference Workshop (7.5 CH)

010 Dementia Care Specialist Clinical Skills Training – R

Carolyn Clevenger, DNP, RN, GNP-BC, AGPCNP-BC, FAANP, FGSA; Leslie Chang
Evertson, DNP, RN, GNP-BC; Sherry A. Greenberg, PhD, RN, GNP-BC, FGSA,
FAANP, FAAN; J. Michelle Moccia, DNP, RN, ANP-BC, GS-C; Jennifer Serafin, MS,
BSN, RN, GNP-BC, GS-C

This session will focus on training advanced practice nurses as dementia care specialists (DCS) based on the UCLA Alzheimer's and Dementia Care Program model. Methods will include role-playing utilizing evidence-based tools required to perform a comprehensive cognitive assessment. These validated tools will help support a clinical understanding of person-centered care including caregiver needs to formulate a comprehensive dementia care plan.

Note: Prior to participating in this workshop, it is highly recommended the learner complete the DCS course available in the GAPNA Online Library.

Sponsored by UCLA and The John A. Hartford Foundation.

12:00 pm – 4:00 pm
Pre-Conference Workshop (3.5 CH)

020 Geriatric Prescribing Update: New Medications, New Contraindications, Updates from BEERS, and Hot Topics in Pharmacology that Impact Older Adults – R

Brent Luu, PharmD, BCPS, BCACP; Kathryn Sexson, APRN, FNP-BC

This session will explore updates in geriatric pharmacology including new medications, new contraindications, updates from BEERS, and hot topics in pharmacology that impact older adults.

210 GAPNA 40th Anniversary: Legacy and Leadership –

Cynthia Gerstenlauer, ANP-BC, GNCS-BC, CDE, CCD; Maureen Beck, DNP, GNP-BC, RN; Deborah Dunn, EdD, MSN, GNP-BC, ACNS-BC, GS-C; Linda Keilman, DNP, MSN, GNP-BC, FAANP

The 40th anniversary of GAPNA is a historic opportunity to gather members together to reminisce and share how and why the organization began. This presentation will include the evolution of the GNP (now AG) role, impact of the consensus model, and innovative creation of GAPNA's gerontological specialist certification. We will examine forces in healthcare and nursing that shaped the current AG role and discuss implications for the future. The goal of this presentation is for learners to advance their understanding of GAPNA's growth and development as a professional organization and its enduring impact on excellence in advanced practice nursing and care of older adults.

Conference Program

231 Delirium in Older Adults with COVID-19 Presenting to the Emergency Department – AC

J. Michelle Moccia, DNP, RN, ANP-BC, GS-C

This session will outline a multicenter cohort study with seven emergency departments in the USA evaluating patients with COVID-19 infection.

232 Pharmacologic Considerations Related to Older Adults – R

Laura Hart, PharmD, MS, BCPS, BCGP

This session will focus on pharmacological issues, treatments, and updates related to older adults.

233 Addressing Nursing Home Safety During the COVID-19 Pandemic and Beyond: A Round-Table Discussion on the GAPNA Position Statement

Marianne Shaughnessy, PhD, CRNP, GS-C; Deborah Dunn, EdD, MSN, GNP-BC, ACNS-BC, GS-C; Sherry A. Greenberg, PhD, RN, GNP-BC, FGSA, FAANP, FAAN; Susan Mullaney, DNP, APRN, GNP-BC, GS-C, FAANP

In December 2020, GAPNA published a position statement on nursing home safety within the context of COVID-19 since the pandemic has had a disproportionate impact on residents and staff in long-term care settings. This session will focus on the development and content of the position statement and feature GAPNA leaders discussing current regulations related to nursing home safety, along with currently available data on the impact of COVID-19 on older adults residing in long-term care settings and the staff who care for them. The session will be interactive, with opportunities for participants to ask questions and share strategies to enrich the discussion and formulate future position statements and health policy agenda items.

341 Hematology/Oncology Emergencies – AC,

Rebecca D. Suttle, DNP, CRNP, AGACNP-BC

This session will focus on oncologic and hematologic emergencies related to the care of the older adult.

Session Key

Look for this code to find sessions and activities offering extra education support to GAPNA Conference attendees.

R = Pharmacology hours offered | AC = Acute Care track |  Live-streamed session

342 Psychiatric Emergencies in Long-Term Care – R

Nanette Lavoie-Vaughan, DNP, ANP-C

Residents of long-term care increasingly have a diagnosis of dementia and/or chronic psychiatric conditions. Providers are seeing an increase in psychiatric emergencies including verbal and physical aggression, sexual aggression, suicidal ideation, homicidal ideation, and non-compliance with medications, safety protocols, and smoking policies. This session will address the risk factors for each of these emergent situations, management of the acute episode, and strategies for prevention. Case studies will be used to illustrate best practices and pharmacological interventions will be addressed where applicable.

343 APRN Gerontological Specialists Certified: Promoting Our Practice in the Next 40 Years

George Peraza-Smith, DNP, APRN-C, GNP-BC, GS-C, CNE, FAANP; Kathryn Daniel, PhD, RN, ANP-BC, GNP-BC, GS-C, AGSF; Susan Mullaney, DNP, APRN, GNP-BC, GS-C, FAANP Jennifer Serafin, MS, BSN, RN, GNP-BC, GS-C; Marianne Shaughnessy, PhD, CRNP, GS-C

For 40 years, GAPNA has been the voice for advanced practice nurses who work with older adults in a wide variety of practice settings. This presentation will provide a historical perspective on the advanced practice nurse roles in gerontology. A chronological timeline will be discussed on external forces and drivers of the role. The future of the APRN gerontological specialist certification will be explored with a distinct focus on the impact to GAPNA and the survival of our specialty.

3:00 pm – 4:00 pm

General Session (1.0 CH)

350 Cultural Intelligence: The Conduit to Bias Management and Health Equity –

Angela Richard-Eaglin, DNP, MSN, FNP-BC, CNE, FAANP

In order for healthcare providers to be meaningful contributors to health equity and avoid activation of unconscious biases that encourage “isms,” application of evidence-based strategies that mitigate bias-influenced decisions and health outcomes is critical. This session will explore why cultural intelligence is the keystone to personal and organizational development of bias management strategies for encouraging intentionality in gaining knowledge and understanding of cultural differences, planning for multicultural interactions, and demonstrating flexibility in cross-cultural situations when necessary.

5:00 pm – 9:00 pm

GAPNA 40th Anniversary Event – Explore Coronado Island
