Call for Articles — Geriatric Nursing Journal

The Communications Committee is soliciting submissions for the next issue of Geriatric Nursing. We are looking for short updates or articles on professional leadership activities, clinical issues, quality, safety and/or systems changes. Case studies of interesting patient scenarios are also encouraged. Submissions should be between 800 and 2,000 words. All submissions should be sent no later than July 16th to elong@dgihcs.com with a copy to debra.bakerjian@ucdmc.ucdavis.edu.

Read Specific author guidelines required of the journal.

We look forward to your submissions,
Communications Committee

Gen Silent movie at the 2014 Annual Conference in Orlando

We have it! "Gen Silent," the award winning documentary, opens this year's Annual Conference in Orlando. Bring your snacks and beverages. See what happens to LGBT elders in OUR health care system. Learn how you can make a difference in the lives of your LGBT patients. This film may change the way you practice. Two contact hours are provided. Register for the conference today!

We hope you join us,
LGBT Focus Group

Teaching Geriatric Care to a New Generation

The next generation of students who are already accustomed to multimedia learning, will work in a world where technology increasingly connects patients, doctors, and nurses who are not in the same room. Read about how the National League for Nursing is harnessing technology to improve education about older adults' medical problems.
